Hershell Koger from his case for Mr. Koger has provided the defendant with ineffective assistance of counsel.

Statement of Relevant Facts

Upon Mr. Koger's representation, a Motion to Suppress was filed in defense of the defendant. Mr. Koger failed to address certain key merits that pertains to defendant's rights of the United States Constitution. This Suppression Hearing occurred the month of June in 2013. Defendant has gone over the Motion to Suppress several times and noticed that Mr. Koger noted the merits in the motion but failed to acknowledge or never attempted to address it in your Honorable courts. This is reckless and negligent of his actions, Since the defendant has been reading about the merits
